

Southward, Derek Patridge, Tom Gilbertson and Brian Newson, plus many more, too numerous to mention. I also want to say a special thank you to Les & Meriel Blacklock for their great help and encouragement, plus the British Homing World, the Racing Pigeon and Stewart Wardrop, General Manager RPRA, for their support.

Ladies & gentlemen, without your help it would never have been possible to achieve this Memorial. If you are ever in our part of the UK I hope you will find time to visit the Devil's Porridge Museum and view the Memorial.

On a personal note I would like to thank the members of the Fund-Raising Committee: Steve Layden, now Mayor of Carlisle, the RPRA President Les Blacklock, Mrs A. Warwick, Mrs O. Shaunessy, F. Dolan and Gary Crozier, who all committed themselves to this cause. Last, but by no means least, I want to thank my sister M. B. Glencross for all her help and my darling wife, Frances, for keeping me going all the way through.

GLENNY

This panel remembers the horses, mules and donkeys which also played an important role during times of conflict.

A closer view of the panel commemorating the role played by pigeons.

The Committee and helpers: B. Southward, G. Crozier, Glenny, T. Gilbertson, L. Blacklock, Mrs A. Warwick, Mrs O. Shaunessy and F. Dolan.