

BLACKPOOL 2022

CLASS WINNERS

After a year off due to the Covid pandemic, the BHW Show of the Year returned to Blackpool last weekend, to celebrate its 50th Anniversary.

The event is the largest gathering of pigeon fanciers in the UK, and one of the largest of its kind in Europe. There is something for everyone at the show: from trade stands, various groups and organisations, talks, films, young fanciers areas, to the main event – the showing and judging of thousands of the top pigeons in the UK. More than that, of course, it's a great chance for pigeon fanciers to meet up.

Nothing emphasises the social aspect of our sport better than this show. Old acquaintances are renewed and new friendships formed. Lots of fanciers gather exchanging opinions, each one convinced that theirs will put the sport to rights. Above all absent friends are remembered and the very human aspect of our sport is on display.

The smooth running of such an event would not be possible without the enormous effort of the volunteer stewards. This is an onerous task with just under 2,000 pens to erect and dismantle and pigeons to log and our sincere thanks go out to them all.

This year's Supreme Champion & Best in Show went to J. & A. Bell.

J. & A. Bell, winners of both the Supreme Champion and Best in Show at the 2022 Blackpool Show of the Year receiving their trophies from RPRA President, Mr Les Blacklock.
